Global Murmurs: Annual Juried Fiber Art Exhibit Showcasing Fiber As A Visual Art Form

Experience FiberArt will hold its annual juried fiber art exhibit October 7 - 27, 2017 at the - Wilder Building, 1 E. Main St., Rochester, NY. The theme "Global Murmurs" celebrates the concerns, joys, and curiosities in the current world through 45 works of fiber art. The exhibit curators invite all to enjoy fiber as a visual art form that allows one to express feelings about today's world. Many thanks to the talented fiber artists from the United States, Europe and Israel who were chose to share their two and three-dimensional work. The exhibit jurors are Elin Noble and Gabriella Zanandrea

Founded in 2011, Experience Fiber Art is a not-for-profit corporation promoting freedom of expression using fiber. This is their fourth exhibit in the Rochester area. In addition to art exhibits, the group utilizes fiber art to open a dialogue about global issues with school-age groups and elder-care sites through presentations and hands-on projects. Experience FiberArt's website is www.experiencefibertart.com

All are invited to the Opening Reception of The Global Murmurs Art Exhibit on Saturday, October 7, 2017, from 2 – 4 PM at the Wilder Building in downtown Rochester.

The Exhibit also features two speakers. On October 7th, Sharon Larson will present poetry readings at 2:30 PM and on October 14th at 1:00PM, Sarah Bachwitz will give a lecture on her trek through the Gobi Desert.

Exhibit hours are Thursday-Saturday 12 noon to 3 PM and by appointment. Admission to the exhibit is free. Parking is readily available nearby and is free on weekends.
